Tchertkoff Is Appeased and Domestic Clouds May Vanish.

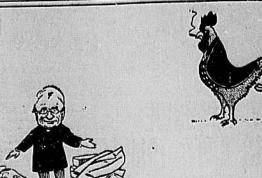

Tula. Russia, November 15.-Count Tolstol is suffering from bronchitis and, owing to high fever, is in chitis and, owing to high fever, is in an extremely weak condition. A message from his daughter. Alexandra, who is nursing him at Astapova, giving this information, adds that the physicians say no immediate danger threatens. Toistol suffered fro a severe attack of bronchitis in the winter of 1908, and as result was readily susceptible to the disease again when he exposed himself to a long journey.

ter of 1908, and as result was readily susceptible to the disease again when he exposed himself to a long journey in the cold and rain.

The home of the station master at Astapova is quite comfortable, and the patient is receiving skilful attention at the hands of Dr. Makovetsky and one other physician, in addition to the loving care of his daughter.

According to the efficial diagnosis of the physicians, Toistol is suffering from a catarrhal inflammation of the jower lobe of the left lung. His heart action is good. The maximum temperature to-day was 102, falling at times to 29; pulse 104; dropping te 90; respiration fair. The physicians side that expectoration and disressis are sufficient, and that the patient has enjoyed tranquil sleep, is in good spirits and is resting quietly.

Altogether, this is considered a very satisfactory report, particularly in view of the high temperature which was maintained yesterday and the symptoms of mental distress which Tolstol was said to have developed. Countess Sophia Tolstol, after the first shock caused by her husband's sudden abandonment of his home and familly, displayed astonishing energy this morning and insisted upon being
